Dear Heather:

I wanted to follow up on our meeting from last week.

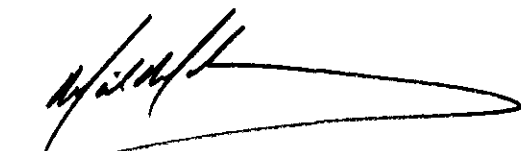

As we discussed, you had raised a question regarding three assets owned by my children. These are specifically the following, all of which appear on my most recent Form A disclosure:

- 1) The Growth Fund of America,
- 2) The ING Small Cap Fund, and,
- 3) The Van Eck Global Fund.

In reviewing my records, it appears that those three assets have been held by my children for some time. Therefore, they should have been included in my original disclosure that I filed as a candidate last year

I understand that this letter will prove sufficient to amend my original disclosure. I also understand from our discussion that there are no other issues outstanding regarding my recently filed Form A, or the original disclosure. If either of these is not the case, or if you need any additional information from me on any matter at all, please don't hesitate to call.

Thanks again for your assistance in clarifying this matter.
